

Start 	Learn About Library Link All SPS students already have Library Link accounts. View this short video to learn the basics of Library Link—good for getting started. Need help? Call SPL at 206-386-4636 or www.spl.org/ask for email/chat.	Use Your Library Link Account Student Library Link ID is always 990000 (4 zeroes) followed by 7-digit student ID number. PIN is birth month and date (mmd). For other frequently asked questions, read this Library Link document.
Explore a Few Services 	BookFlix  BookFlix (web browser only) pairs picture books with nonfiction. Access read-alouds, games, author information, and more. Here are written instructions	Libby  Libby (from OverDrive) is your gateway to reading eBooks and audiobooks through Seattle Public Library. Here are written instructions	Hoopla  Hoopla offers "always available" access to comics, music, movies, and TV shows, up to 15 streams per month per library account. Requires an email login. Here are written instructions
Try It! 	 <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Open BookFlix on web browser. Pick a category. Login with Library Link ID. Choose a pairing. Watch the Story. Read the Book. Try some Puzzlers. 	Through June 30, 2020, Libby has some titles that are unlimited copies and always available. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Visit this link. Check out a title. Ask a friend(s) or family member to check out and read same title. Discuss! 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Login to your Hoopla account. To right of search bar, click the settings  icon. Turn on Kids Mode. Navigate to Comics. Find an old favorite. Recommend to a friend(s) or family member who's also using Hoopla. 